

Flash Back Lesson 1 - Families - Keyword Quiz 1

1. - This type of family is considered to be the ideal type of family in Britain and consists of two generations: male and female parents and their children.
2. families - Are a particular type of vertically extended family with up to four generations living together or nearby, but with few children, making them appear long and thin in structure.
3. / family – An extended family whose members do not live together or nearby, but who keep in regular contact through visits, or phone calls, video calls, text messages, showing the importance of close extended family ties.
4.- Refers to a marriage where one partner is allowed to marry several partners at the same time.
5. - Refers to a marriage where men and women can only have one marriage partner at a time.
6. - A policy introduced to slow down population growth in 1979.
7.-parents - A family arrangement of one parent with their dependent children.
8.or –family, is made up of one or both partners with children from a previous marriage or relationship.
9.families - Couple of the same sex who might be living together or in a civil partnership (marriage).
10. marriages – A marriage in which the bride and groom are chosen for each other by their families.
11. children – Grown-up children who return to live with their parents as a result of the breakup of a relationship or because they can't afford to rent or buy a house.

11 marks

Flash Back Lesson 1 - Families - Keyword Quiz 1

1. Nuclear - This type of family is considered to be the ideal type of family in Britain and consists of two generations: male and female parents and their children.
2. Beanpole families - Are a particular type of vertically extended family with up to four generations living together or nearby, but with few children, making them appear long and thin in structure.
3. Modified extended family – An extended family whose members do not live together or nearby, but who keep in regular contact through visits, or phone calls, video calls, text messages, showing the importance of close extended family ties.
4. Polygamy - Refers to a marriage where one partner is allowed to marry several partners at the same time.
5. Monogamy - Refers to a marriage where men and women can only have one marriage partner at a time.
6. One Child Policy in China - A policy introduced to slow down population growth in 1979.
7. Lone-parents - A family arrangement of one parent with their dependent children.
8. Blended or step –family, is made up of one or both partners with children from a previous marriage or relationship.
9. Same-sex families - Couple of the same sex who might be living together or in a civil partnership (marriage).
10. Arranged marriages – A marriage in which the bride and groom are chosen for each other by their families.
11. Boomerang children – Grown-up children who return to live with their parents as a result of the breakup of a relationship or because they can't afford to rent or buy a house.

11 marks